
BEIN AND THE WORLD OF COLORS — Animated Series

An episodic journey through emotions

Format: Animated Series, 12-24 episodes × 22 min

Target: Children 4-10 and their families

Platform: Netflix, Cartoon Network, Disney+, Nick Jr.

PITCH

An episodic animated series where each episode explores a different color and the emotion it represents. Educational without being preachy.

EPISODE STRUCTURE

Ep 1-3: Introduction to color magic, meeting Fion

Ep 4-7: Exploration of primary emotions (red=anger, blue=sadness, yellow=joy)

Ep 8-12: Secondary emotions (green=jealousy, pink=love, grey=fear)

Ep 13-18: Maith's lessons — colors can mix and change

Ep 19-24: The Spectrum — all colors together, emotional balance

EDUCATIONAL VALUE: Social-emotional learning (SEL) curriculum alignment. Each episode comes with discussion guides for parents and teachers.

Comparable: Bluey, Hilda, Steven Universe (emotionally).

Available: Series adaptation rights worldwide.

Interested? Contact: info@robertocalvoproductions.com